POSITIVE ALTERNATIVES TO PUNISHMENT

Melissa McClain is a graduate of Kent State University and is the Community Education Program Coordinator at Akron Children's Hospital. She is responsible for a social and emotional learning curriculum that includes K-12 classroom education as well as psychological trauma education for educators and other professionals who work in a school environment.

This workshop provides an introduction to restorative justice and practices. It will help school staff understand ways to improve both classroom and administrative discipline protocol. It also provides practical tools that educators and staff can use to turn classroom discipline from just punitive to positive learning opportunities.
