Melissa McClain is a graduate of Kent State University and is the Community Education Program Coordinator at Akron Children's Hospital. She is responsible for a social and emotional learning curriculum that includes K-12 classroom education as well as psychological trauma education for educators and other professionals who work in a school environment.

This workshop is for any adult who wishes to focus on the strengths of children and nurture a path to thriving for all. Some topics include:

- * Managing Trauma in the Classroom
- * Tactics that turn classroom discipline from just punitive to positive learning and relationship building
