Featuring the “Gifted Guy”, Todd Stanley

Join Todd Stanley at Mid-Ohio ESC

Todd Stanley is the author of many teacher-education books including Project-Based Learning for Gifted Students: A Handbook for the 21st Century Classroom, When Smart Kids Underachieve in the Classroom: Practical Solutions for Teachers, Authentic Learning: Real World Experiences that Build 21st Century Skills, Using Rubrics for Performance-Based Assessment, and his latest, Promoting Rigor Through Higher Level Questioning.

Todd served as a classroom teacher for 18 years and is currently the Gifted Services Coordinator for Pickerington Local School District and an adjunct professor at the University of Cincinnati teaching gifted education.

About this Session

While this presentation will be designed specifically to target gifted students, the principles and learning will apply to all students.

As a stand-alone follow up to this session, we will be offering Todd’s book, Project-Based Learning for Gifted Students: A Handbook for the 21st-Century Classroom as an online book study in January 2021.
